

Options available in specific countries, per country, in alphabetical order:

(Sections in bold indicate this is the only acceptable verification option for that country/degree)

Argentina: Verification through the government portal

<https://registrograduados.siu.edu.ar/> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Armenia: Verifications of the diploma secondary education through <https://verify.e-gov.am/en/> or via QR code can be considered. Please note we will need the document tracking number (or QR code) of the original diploma, not the apostille. Please send a clear scan of this document to verification@vub.be.

Australia:

Verifications through MyEquals can be considered. MyEquals will send the verification of your degree to us via email upon your request.

In Western Australia: Verification of secondary education via <https://waceauthentication.scsa.wa.edu.au/> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Some states/territories use the Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR), based on the grades obtained in the last year of secondary education. If the ATAR can be verified digitally via the UAC website (<https://verify.uac.edu.au/>), this can be considered as verification.

Bangladesh: Secondary education verifications have to come from the education board. Results can be checked online. Please send a clear scan of the document that contains the type of examination, year, board and result type to verification@vub.be.

Benin: Verification through the government portal

https://www.officedubacbenin.bj/spip.php?page=resultats_bac can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Cameroon: Verification of GCE O and A levels has to go through the GCE board. Please ask them to verify your results to us via email.

Chile: Verification through the government portal <https://certificados.mineduc.cl> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

China: We only accept verifications through CHESICC/CSSD's Online Verification Report. You can add the verification record along with other required documents when submitting your application.

Democratic Republic of Congo: Verifications through <https://exetat.eduquepsp.education/> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Ecuador: Verification through the government portal can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be France: Verification of degrees through <https://diplome.gouv.fr/sanddiplome/verif> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

India: Verification of your secondary education has to come from the education board directly. Please check the website of the board for the options.

Lebanon: Verification of secondary education through <https://www.mehe.gov.lb/ar> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Mexico: Verifications through

<https://www.cedulaprofesional.sep.gob.mx/cedula/presidencia/indexAvanzada.action> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Moldova: Verifications of secondary education through <https://ctice.md/verif/> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Myanmar: We only accept verifications of secondary education done through the Department of Myanmar Examinations (verify@myanmarexam.org). Please ask them to send a verification email directly to us.

Nepal: Verification through the government portal

<http://verify.soce.gov.np/> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Netherlands (the): DUO certificate "uittreksel diploma" can be considered. Please send the unaltered pdf of this document to verification@vub.be.

New Zealand:

Verifications through

<https://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/results-2/record-of-achievement/nzroa-document-verification/> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Verifications through MyEquals can be considered. MyEquals will send the verification of your degree to us via email upon your request.

Nigeria: verifications of your NECO through the official website

<https://results.neco.gov.ng/> can be considered

Norway: Verification through the diploma registry can be considered.

Find out how to share your results here:

<https://www.vitnemalsportalen.no/english/how/>

Pakistan: Verification of your secondary education has to come from the education board directly. Please check the website of the board for the options.

Peru:

Verifications of recently obtained secondary education degrees through <https://certificado.minedu.gob.pe/validate> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Verifications via SUNEDU can be considered.

Philippines: Verification of secondary education has to come from the department of education of the specific region. Contact them with the request to send an email verification to verification@vub.be.

Rwanda: Verification of the Rwanda Advanced Certificate of Education has to come from NESAC. Contact them with the request to send an email verification to verification@vub.be.

South Korea: Verifications through https://www.certpia.com/newCert/fore/fore_eng.asp can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Spain:

Most digitally signed documents can be considered.

Verification through the government portal

<https://sede.administracionespublicas.gob.es/valida> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be.

Sweden: Verification through LAODK can be considered. Please send us the PDF and/or your national number to verification@vub.be.

Turkey: Diploma can be verified on the website of the Turkish government with your TC number and the barcode of the certificate. Please send a clear scan of the document containing this information to verification@vub.be.

Ukraine: Verifications through edbo.gov can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to verification@vub.be. In case your diploma is too old to be verified via EDBO, please follow the usual e-mail verification procedure.

United States of America:

Parchment verifications can be considered.

Verifiable transcripts sent from studentclearinghouse can be considered.

Venezuela: Verifications through

<http://validarlegalizaciones.mppre.gob.ve/> can be considered. Please send a clear scan of the document with the necessary information to confirmation@vub.be.

Other options not tied to a specific country, in alphabetical order:

Cambridge A levels: We can verify your results directly with your GCE certificate for exam sessions from 2015 onwards. If you obtained Cambridge A-levels after 2015, we only accept verifications of your results this way.

Caribbean: final exam result verifications via the Caribbean Examinations Council: <https://www.cxc.org/student-results/> can be considered.

International Baccalaureate: Please contact IB and give them permission to share your results with us through the International Baccalaureate Information System (IBIS). We only accept IB verifications via IBIS.

West Africa: Verification of the West African Senior School Certificate has to come from WAEC directly.

You are always welcome to inform us of other possible options for verifications. Please do note that the final decision lies with the student administration office.